

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who admirably promote community betterment through wide-ranging business involvement in local towns and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Richard J. Sacks has attained considerable distinction as founder and President of The Sacks Group, Incorporated, a Saint Charles area consulting firm devoted to the development of small business since 1985; and

Whereas, Richard Sacks will enhance his already impressive record of accomplishments when he receives the Small Business Person of the Year Award for 2003 from the Saint Charles Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, to be presented on May 19, 2004, the Small Business Person of the Year Award recognizes those individuals who have made significant contributions to the vitality, diversity, strength, and depth of the Saint Charles business community; and

Whereas, Richard Sacks has brought to The Sacks Group a wealth of knowledge and experience which he garnered from earlier positions in public accounting and private industry; and

Whereas, in addition to his financial management background, Richard Sacks has extensive experience in computer systems design and programming, knowledge which proved beneficial to his design and implementation of several integrated accounting and management information systems for national companies; and

Whereas, Richard Sacks is a contributing editor to Business St. Charles magazine; author of a newspaper column and publisher of a newsletter, both of which are entitled "Entrepreneur's Corner"; host of two weekly television shows for entrepreneurs, "Getting Down to Business" and "Friendly Fire," and a third show called "Mind Your Business"; and a member of numerous professional, cultural, business, and service organizations:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Richard Sacks for the 2003 Small Business Person of the Year Award from the Saint Charles Chamber of Commerce and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Richard J. Sacks.
